SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[SEC File No. 270-54 OMB Control No. 3235-0056]

Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request; Revisions; Form 8-A

Upon Written Request, Copies Available From: Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Filings and Information Services, Washington, DC 20549.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget requests for approval of revisions to the following form:

Form 8-A is the special form for the registration of additional classes or series of securities by an issuer that is required to file reports pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"). Form 8-A does not require as detailed disclosure about the issuer's business as other Exchange Act registration forms because it presupposes that more detailed information is or will be available through periodic reports pursuant to Sections 13 or 15(d). The form currently contains a disclosure of information concerning the particular class of securities being registered. This information may be provided by incorporation by reference to a comparable description contained in any other filing with the Commission. The Commission believes this information is essential to a determination by an investor of the merits of the security.

The principal function of Commission rules and forms under the securities laws disclosure provisions is to make information available to the securities markets. Private contractors reproduce much of the filed information directly from the Commission's public files. Thus, information in filings on Form 8-A can be, and is, used by security holders, investors, brokers, dealers, investment banking firms, professional securities analysts and others in evaluating securities and making investment and voting decisions with respect to them. In addition, all investors benefit indirectly from filings on Form 8-A, as direct users of the information in such filings effect transactions in securities on the basis of the current information included in such filings, thereby causing the market prices of the securities to reflect such information.

On July 18, 1997, the Commission adopted revisions to Form 8-A. As a result of these revisions, the Commission estimates that 1,940 respondents will file Form 8-A for a total annual burden of 13,050 hours.

General comments regarding the estimated burden hours should be directed to the Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission at the address below. Any comments concerning the accuracy of the estimated average burden hours for compliance with Commission rules and forms should be directed to Michael E. Bartell, Associate Executive Director, Office of Information Technology, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549 and Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Room 3208, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503.

Dated: July 22, 1997.

Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.
